

Lorne Kelton's Introduction

Important Note: The introduction is a crucial part of Lorne's presentation. Well executed, it establishes credibility and sets the right tone for the event.

Introduction

Our speaker today is Lorne Kelton, author, thought leader, and noted expert on behavioral leadership and critical thinking.

Lorne has served as the President of the Canadian Association of Professional Speakers, Vancouver, is a recipient of the Presentation Mastery Award, is an Honors graduate of the Canadian Securities Institute, and received his Masters degree in Adult Learning & Global Change from the University of British Columbia.

Lorne has authored several books including, IFRAME: A Manager's Guide to Critically Balanced Thinking, Powerful Communication, Get Motivated, and How to Manage Your Career Transition. Lorne's book on Critical Thinking has been required reading in 2 Canadian MBA university programs.

His list of clients includes: CIBC, Labatt, Thomas Cook, Four Seasons Hotels, DHL, and RBC Dominion Securities.

Lorne lives in Kirkland, Quebec, Canada with his wife Regina, daughter Chloe, and son Logan.

Please welcome Lorne Kelton!

To learn more about how Lorne can help your organization achieve performance breakthroughs, please send him an email at: lorne@thinkshift.com or call: 514.758.2239. You can also visit him at: www.thinkshift.com.